E-mail votes shall offer the choices “Yes,” “No,” or “Hold.”
- When the “Yes” votes form a portion of the votes cast sufficient to pass the motion, it shall pass.
 - When the “No” votes form a portion of the total votes cast sufficient to defeat the motion, the motion is defeated.
 - Otherwise, debate on the motion shall be postponed (“Held”) until the next in-person meeting.
- Electronic ballots must be received directly from the Secretary, and returned to the Secretary from the electronic address to which it was delivered by the date specified in the call for the vote. Article 3(x)(iii)(b) (specifying how the Chair shall vote) does not apply to votes conducted under Article 3(v)(iv).

3 (w) Quorum on the Senate

- (i) Except as otherwise stated the use of recording devices and cameras is not permitted after a meeting has been called to order, except at the discretion of the Chair.
- (ii) Motions from the floor may be made orally; however, at the request of the Chair or the Secretary, the mover may be required to put the motion in writing.
 - (a) Motions may also originate in the following ways:
 - From a Committee presenting a report, or
 - From a Committee advising Senate in advance of its intention to bring forth motions at the next regular meeting of Senate, or
 - From a College, if the Steering Committee of Senate considers that the matter does not need to be referred to a Senate Committee, or
 - From a member presenting a notice of motion to be presented at the next regular meeting of Senate.
 - (b) Once a motion is moved and seconded, the mover of the motion may speak to it and answer questions from the floor of Senate.
 - (c) Before debate has begun, a motion may be withdrawn by its mover. (Note that a motion on the agenda need not be moved.) After debate has begun, a motion may be withdrawn by the mover with the unanimous consent of Senate, or by a simple majority vote without debate.

- (d) A motion may be presented and voted upon with or without discussion.
 - (e) A motion on the floor of Senate may be referred to a committee by the carrying of a second motion to this effect, which is debatable and is passed by a simple majority.
 - (f) A motion to postpone consideration of a motion on the floor of Senate may be moved at any time. If seconded, a motion to postpone consideration is debatable. If the motion to postpone is carried by simple majority, no further discussion of the original motion is allowed; if the motion to postpone is defeated, debate of the initial motion may continue.
 - (g) A motion to lay on the table halts consideration of the pending motion immediately. It must be seconded, is not debatable, and may be passed by a simple majority. It should be employed only when Senate wishes to lay the pending motion aside temporarily when a matter of immediate urgency has arisen.
 - (h) A motion to amend a motion on the floor of Senate may be moved at any time. If seconded, the motion to amend may be debated and voted upon, to be passed by simple majority. Regardless of the outcome, debate of the original motion may continue, with further motions of amendments proposed and voted upon. Once all discussions are complete, including voting upon all motions of amendment, the original motion, in amended form if such amendments were carried, is put to a vote in its entirety.
 - (i) Upon the agreement of Senate by general consent or by motion, a motion on the floor, that is presented in more than one part, may be divided into two or more related parts, and each part voted on as if it were a distinct question; provided that each part, if approved, is separately a question that can be acted upon if none of the other parts is carried.
 - (j) When a motion on the floor consists of several independent parts, one or more parts must receive separate consideration and vote at the demand of a single member.
 - (k) A motion to adjourn may be made at any time. When seconded, it is not debatable, must be voted upon immediately and requires a simple majority vote in the affirmative to pass.
- (iii) Voting at Senate shall be conducted in the following manner:
- (a) For purpose of elections, all votes will be by ballot. Normally all other votes will be by a show of hands, and a simple affirmative majority or lack thereof will be recorded. In those circumstances where there is a motion passed to have a recorded vote or a vote by ballot, this shall be done and will be reflected in the minutes.
 - (b) The Chair may not vote except when the Chair's vote changes the outcome, or as mentioned in section 3(v)(v). A tied vote defeats a motion requiring a simple majority to pass.
- (iv) Debate at Senate shall be conducted in the following manner:
- (a) Any member of Senate who wishes to speak must be recognized by the Chair.
 - (b) Any senator who has been recognized to speak by the Chair once on any given question has exhausted their right to speak on that question until all members of Senate have been given the opportunity to speak once. The same principle shall apply to those speaking, two, three, and more times.

- (v) Questions to other Senators, resource persons or visitors to Senate must be directed through the Chair, who will request the response.
- (vi) When a person is a voting member of Senate or a Senate Committee by virtue of their office and is absent, they may appoint an acting officer, who will have the right to vote at Senate or Senate Committee meetings.

3 (y) Minutes

- (i) The minutes of open sessions of Senate shall be a brief summary of the points made in debate and a record of decisions taken.
- (ii) The minutes of closed sessions shall reflect the mover and the seconder of motions and only that information germane to the type of decision being made (e.g. acceptance of the report of the Senate Committee on Honorary Degrees and Other Forms of Special Recognition).
- (iii) The open sessions of Senate shall be audio taped in their entirety, and retained in the University Secretariat until such time as the minutes of the meeting in question have been approved by the Senate, after which meeting the taped record shall be erased.
- (iv) The supporting papers and minutes of all closed sessions shall be placed in the University archives.
- (v) A copy of the minutes of open sessions shall be distributed to the members of Senate. An electronic copy of the minutes of open sessions will be posted on the World Wide Web.
